

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 7/31/84

1

On July 20, 1984, at JOHN'S PIZZERIA, Calumet City, Illinois, Special Agent (SA) [ ] observed DOMINICK "TOOTSIE" PALERMO talking to the maitre'd. TOOTSIE PALERMO was overheard saying, "Go ahead, and let them eat." TOOTSIE PALERMO referred to a group sitting at Table #2. This group consisted of a middle aged lady who SA [ ] believes was TOOTSIE PALERMO'S [ ] based on his actions towards her: an older lady who appeared to be the [ ] TOOTSIE PALERMO; a young female who appeared to be [ ] TOOTSIE PALERMO; and a female child, who appeared to be [ ] of TOOTSIE PALERMO.

TOOTSIE PALERMO went to Table #2 and sat with this family group; however, did not eat any food. PALERMO was overheard referring to one of the females as [ ]

[ ] entered JOHN'S PIZZERIA, and went to the table occupied by PALERMO's family. PALERMO was overheard speaking to the [ ] saying, "You remember [ ] spoke to the individuals at the table, then [ ] and TOOTSIE PALERMO left the table and went to Booth #1. SA [ ] was seated in Booth #19, with his back to TOOTSIE PALERMO.

An individual entered JOHN'S PIZZERIA later identified as [ ] (Last Name Unknown) (LNU). The description of [ ] LNU is a white male, age 60-65, 5'8", 180-185 pounds. PALERMO was overheard to refer to this individual as [ ] LNU sat down with PALERMO and [ ] and engaged in a conversation in Booth #1.

A younger white male, (First Name Unknown) (FNU) LNU, entered the restaurant. The description of FNU LNU is a white male, age 45, blondish gray hair, [ ]

Investigation on 7/20/84 at Calumet City, Illinois File # Chicago 183A-1917 sub B
by SA [ ] MTD/dlf Date dictated 7/27/84 35

Continuation of FD-302 of JOHN'S PIZZERIA, On 7/20/84, Page 2*

full head of hair, dressed neat in a light blue sports coat, full faced, similar facial features to AL TOCCO, but was not AL TOCCO. This individual FNU LNU, entered JOHN'S PIZZERIA, spoke to TOOTSIE PALERMO and [redacted]. He then walked over to the family table and spoke to TOOTSIE PALERMO's wife. He chatted for a few moments, then returned to the Booth #1, occupied by TOOTSIE PALERMO, [redacted] LNU. This individual sat in the booth for a few minutes and talked to the individuals in the booth, then FNU LNU and [redacted] got up and moved to the bar, leaving [redacted] and TOOTSIE PALERMO in the booth.

An unknown subject (Unsub) white male #2, then entered JOHN'S PIZZERIA. This unsub was a white male, age 55-60, black hair-graying, 5'8", 200-210 pounds, stock build, rugged appearing individual, hard looking.

This unsub #2 stopped at the booth, spoke to TOOTSIE PALERMO and [redacted] then walked over and spoke to TOOTSIE PALERMO's [redacted] and the women at the table having dinner, he then left the women and sat down in Booth #1 with [redacted] and TOOTSIE PALERMO. While these individuals were conversing in Booth #1, SA [redacted] overheard PALERMO state, "The guy's a month behind on his payment." There was a conversation, then someone stated, "You know me, I'm not going to do anything." During the time the conversation took place in Booth #1, the individuals in the booth spoke in very low tones, and it was difficult to understand what they were talking about. The three individuals in Booth #1, [redacted] TOOTSIE, and unsub #2, then left the booth and went to Table #8. These three individuals were then joined by [redacted] LNU from the bar, and a female approximately 55-60 years old, and these five individuals then ordered food and ate at the table and talked about various items of general discussion including the fact that the FBI had arrested [redacted] a top ten fugitive, and that [redacted] was sitting in some bleachers when arrested. This discussion seemed to be of a general nature and all the individuals talked in normal tone of voice.